

BARTLETT-O'BRIEN FACTION WIPES M'CARRAN-KEELERITES OFF THE MAP

Democratic Primaries Participated in By Voters and Non-Voters Alike--Greatest Free-for-All Political Circus That Ever Hit Tonopah--Battle Left Many Wounds That Will Not Heal--Count But Half Finished at an Early Hour This Morning.

At the hour of going to press the count of the vote at the Democratic primaries had been less than half complete, but the showing was such that the Bartlett-O'Brien faction had a lead at a ratio of 2 to 1.

At Goldfield a fight was waged against the ticket headed by Ben Rosenthal, which was anti-Bartlett. The Bartlett faction had a distinctive lead over their opponents at 3 o'clock this morning and Bartlett's friends were claiming a victory by a large majority.

Yesterday in one of the bitterest factional fights ever waged in Tonopah George A. Bartlett and Judge J. P. O'Brien are likely to be successful in securing a delegation that is pledged to support their respective candidates before the Democratic state convention, which meets in this city August 31.

Voters and non-voters, Democrats and non-Democrats, non-descripts and non-entities were all dragged out to the polls by the various adherents of the two factions and given an opportunity of casting a ballot.

The polls were open at 1 o'clock and at its close at 6 o'clock in the evening 871 ballots had been cast, which knowing ones say is larger than the registered vote of Tonopah. On one side was arrayed the Bartlett-O'Brien men, while on the other stood the McCarran-Keeler element. One hour after the casting of the vote the O'Brien-Bartlett wing was in high feather and claimed a victory. The result of the ballot as far as counted shows an overwhelming victory for the present congressman's delegation. The following is the Bartlett-O'Brien list that promises to be successful:

J. Watt Briggs, Zeb Kendall, H. J. Hall, J. J. McQuillan, Charles Kiehofer, Paul Tarpey, Walter Drysdale, T. J. Lydon, James Timlin, D. G. Robb, Peter Hertel, W. J. Douglass, Roger Dougherty, John Clendenning, George B. Thatcher, Harry Downs.
